CIVIL LITIGATION DEFENSE

SANDY ELORANTO ANNOUNCED AS SENIOR COUNSEL FOR SUTTON BOOKER P.C.

Sutton Booker is pleased to announce that Sandy Eloranto has joined the firm as Senior Counsel. Ms. Eloranto brings with her more than 15 years of experience in products liability and medical malpractice cases as well as premises liability, construction and commercial matters. She has handled drug and device cases filed in state, federal and MDL courts, professional and premises liability cases, E-Discovery matters, and medical privacy issues.

Ms. Eloranto has defended numerous cases involving catastrophic injuries, giving her the ability to quickly assess complex medical causation and damages issues and retain physicians and other medical experts to zealously defend her clients. Ms. Eloranto has managed a number of multi-million dollar E-Discovery collections from the preservation and collection phase through production. She has drafted legal hold policies, managed the collection and production of foreign language documents, and negotiated complicated two-tier protective orders and electronic document production specifications.

Ms. Eloranto is an active member of the Colorado Women's Bar Association and served on the Board of Directors from 2005-2007. She is also a member of the Faculty of Federal Advocates, Colorado Defense Lawyers Association, and the Defense Research Institute where she sits on both the E-Discovery and Data Security subcommittees. Ms. Eloranto serves as a consultant to the Swedish Hospital Ethics Committee, giving presentations on Colorado's medical directive statutes, and has volunteered as a judge for the Arapahoe County Bar Association's Mock Trial Tournament. Ms. Eloranto was named a Colorado Super Lawyers Rising Star® in 2010.

Prior to joining Sutton Booker P.C., Ms. Eloranto was with a national law firm, appearing in jurisdictions around the country in mass tort and product liability cases. She is licensed in Colorado and Washington. She earned her bachelor's degree from Oregon State University and her law degree from the University of Oregon where she was an Associate Editor for the Oregon Law Review.
