About

Laura began her legal career as a law clerk in Arapahoe County District Court which provided an opportunity for hands-on experience in the courtroom. She then served as an Assistant City Attorney, further expanding her experience in the courtroom and assisting her with a smooth transition to civil litigation to hone her skills. Laura has litigated cases in both state and federal court in Colorado and has defended clients in jury trials and bench trials.

In her free time, Laura enjoys cooking, hiking, exploring Colorado, and spending time with her daughters.
